

Department of Justice

United States Attorney David L. Huber
Western District of Kentucky

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 2008
WWW.USDOJ.GOV/USAO/KYW

CONTACT: SANDY FOCKEN
PHONE: (502) 582-5911
FAX: (502) 582-5097

LEBANON, KENTUCKY MAN PLEADS GUILTY
TO DEALING CRACK COCAINE

- Street value approximately $7,350

LOUISVILLE, KY - Jeremy Seabrooks, age 31, of Lebanon, Kentucky, in Marion County, pled guilty to selling cocaine, U.S. Attorney David L. Huber of the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced today.

Seabrooks admitted that on December 15, 2006, he distributed more than 50 grams of crack cocaine; that on December 13, 2006, he sold more than 11 grams of crack cocaine; and that on December 8, 2006 and January 17, 2007 he sold less than 5 grams of crack cocaine each time. in an unspecified quantity. The approximate street value of the crack cocaine is $7,400.

If convicted, the maximum potential penalties are life imprisonment, a $14,000,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of at least five years and up to life. The charges to which he pled guilty carry a minimum term of imprisonment of no less than ten years.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney John E. Kuhn, Jr. The Louisville Field Office of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) conducted the investigation in partnership with Kentucky State Police, as part of ATF's mandated mission to reduce violent crime and other threats to public safety.

The plea was entered before Joseph H. McKinley, Jr., Judge, United States District Court, Louisville, Kentucky.

Seabrooks is scheduled to be sentenced before Judge McKinley on August 4, 2008, at 11:00 a.m., in Louisville, Kentucky.

###